RULES of the RIDE

- This is a ranch style bronc riding with a standard stock saddle or slick fork saddle.
- Stock will be drawn—not chute run.
- Riders can hold the horn, cantle, rope strap, or night latch as they choose. Riders may also choose to ride one-handed.
- No spur out is required, and loss of a stirrup is allowed.
- No chapping the horse out the gate.
- No hobbling of stirrups or binds on stirrup leathers.
- At the contractor’s discretion, horses may be throat-latched.
- Bucking rolls, sack, or saddle blanket tied across the fork is allowed.
- The same hand must be used on the rein at all times. Rider must hold rein until pick-up or dismount.
- Fanning is allowed with hat or slicker; no quirts.
- Two qualified rough-stock judges will judge each horse from 1 to 25 points, and each rider from 1 to 25 points. A high-style, showy ride will result in higher scoring.
- Judges have sole discretion regarding re-rides.
